

Local Financial Advisor Attends Advisor Group's Annual W Forum

Leading female advisors gather for networking and educational opportunities hosted by broker-dealer network

China Grove, NC – July 7, 2016 – Midge Suite-Arnold and Cathy Foster, local financial advisors affiliated with Victory Wealth Management, Inc. recently attended Advisor Group's 10th annual women's conference from June 5-7 in Salt Lake City. This year's event provided attendees with educational sessions, along with networking opportunities, to support female advisors as they grow their financial services practices.

The 2016 W Forum's keynote speakers included Diana Nyad, author, journalist and long-distance swimmer who successfully completed the 110-mile swim from Cuba to Florida in 2013. Anne-Marie Slaughter, attorney, foreign policy analyst and political scientist, who has been described as "an innovative and prolific scholar" by Foreign Policy and named one of the magazine's Top 100 Global Thinkers four years in a row also took the stage during a general session.

Erica McGinnis, President and CEO of Advisor Group; Valerie Brown, Executive Chairman, Advisor Group; and Lisa Hoyne, Senior Vice President, Marketing of Advisor Group were also featured speakers throughout the conference.

"The W Forum is always a fantastic event for Advisor Group's female advisors," said Midge. "The event was thoughtfully designed to create an environment suitable for both learning and networking. The keynote speakers were both compelling and the breakout sessions were relevant to both our business and our professional development. I left the conference with invaluable insights and actionable tips to help grow my business and better support my clients."

The W Forum's breakout sessions focused on key business techniques and industry topics to include: Men and Money: What Female Advisors Need to Know About Working with their Male Clients; Bridging the Gap: Engaging Multi-Generational Clients through Impact Investing; Building Lasting Alliances with Charitable Giving Strategies; Overcoming Your Negative Mindset & Getting on Fire with Your Business; and Fueling Women Business Owners, among others.
